Terms and Conditions on Licensing Software for Permanent and Gratuitously Use of Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft zur Förderung der angewandten Forschung e.V., Munich

§1 Contractual Parties; Scope of Terms

(1) Fraunhofer Gesellschaft zur Foerderung der angewandten Forschung e.V., registered as a non-profit association at the local court of Munich (Amtsgericht München), Reg No VR 4461, Hansastraße 27c, 80686 Muenchen, Germany („Fraunhofer") is in the business of applied research and has inter alia developed certain software ("Software"), which it licenses royalty-free to third parties ("Licensee") pursuant to these Terms and Conditions.

(2) These Terms and Conditions ("Terms and Conditions") exclusively apply for the contract between Fraunhofer and the Licensee regarding the use of the Software. The Terms and Conditions become part of the contract upon downloading the Software by the Licensee.

(3) Divergent, contradictory or supplementary standard conditions on the part of the Licensee shall not become a part of the contract unless Fraunhofer expressly agrees that they shall apply.

§2 Delivery and Installation

Fraunhofer delivers to Licensee a complete, machine-readable intangible copy of the licensed Software in source or object code including respective User Documentation (altogether: the "Licensed Material"). The Software's characteristics and functions that have been agreed upon are displayed to the Licensee upon the Download of the Software.

§3 Granting of rights

(1) Fraunhofer grants to Licensee a non-exclusive royalty-free license unlimited in time to install, access, use, copy, modify, distribute the source or executable form of the Software.

(2) The Licensee shall not grant to third parties any rights to use the Software be it either in tangible or intangible form against payment or for any commercial purposes, temporarily or permanently.

(3) Any usage of the Software outside the scope of rights granted herein constitutes an infringement of this Agreement.

(4) Licensee undertakes to maintain all proprietary notices being contained in the Software such as copyright and other legal notices without any changes and to adopt them in all complete or partial copies made of the Software.

§4 Compliance with Export Control Regulations

(1) The Licensee shall comply with all applicable provisions of national and international (re-)export control regulations when using and in case of particularly passing on the Software and the User Documentation (be it separately or as a part of a product / a service) if any, to third parties. In particular, he has to obey the (re-) export control regulations of the Federal Republic of Germany, the European Union and the United States of America when passing on the said Software to third parties.

(2) In case of passing on the Software and the User Documentation if any to third parties the Licensee shall in advance verify with great care and shall ensure through appropriate measures that

- by such transfer to third parties, through the procurement of contracts for the Software or by providing other economic resources in connection with the Software it does act against an embargo of the European Union, the United States of America and / or the United Nations - also taking into account any restrictions on Domestic transactions and any circumvention prohibitions, or

- the Software are not intended to be used for military preparations, nucleonic or weapon technical purposes that are prohibited or require special approval, unless any necessary approvals are in place, or

- the regulations of all applicable Sanctioned Party Lists of the European Union and the United States of America concerning the trading with entities, persons and organizations listed therein are considered.

(3) If required to enable authorities or Fraunhofer to conduct export control checks, the Licensee, upon request by Fraunhofer, shall promptly provide Fraunhofer with all information pertaining to the particular end-user, the particular destination and the particular intended use of information, Software and documentation provided by Fraunhofer, as well as any export control restrictions existing.

(4) The Licensee shall indemnify and hold harmless Fraunhofer from and against any claim, proceeding, action of any public authority or third parties arising out of or relating to any noncompliance with export control regulations by the Licensee, and the Licensee shall compensate Fraunhofer for all losses and expenses resulting thereof, unless such noncompliance was not caused by fault of the Licensee.

§5 Warranties for Material Defects

(1) Fraunhofer is only liable for damages that arise as a result of maliciously concealed material defects of the Software by Fraunhofer. Any further liability of Fraunhofer for material defects of the Software shall be excluded.

(2) A material defect exists if the Software does not have the characteristics and functions.

(3) As defects shall only be regarded significant deviations from the characteristics and functions of the Software set out in Annex 1 , that significantly impair the use of the Software.

(4) In case the Parties did not agree on any characteristics and functions of the Software, a material defect exists if the Software is suitable for the customary use and its quality is usual in Software of the same kind and the Licensee may expect this quality in view of the type of the Software.

§6 Warranty of Title

Should the contractually agreed use be impaired by third parties intellectual property rights, Fraunhofer is only liable for damages that arise as a result of maliciously concealed legal defects of the Software by Fraunhofer. Any further liability of Fraunhofer for legal defects of the Software shall be excluded.

§7 Liability; Indemnification

(1) Unlimited Liability: Fraunhofer shall be fully liable for damages caused intentionally or by gross negligence as well as for damages that arise from injury of life, body or health.

(2) In cases of slight negligence, Fraunhofer's liability shall be excluded.

(3) Licensee shall indemnify, defend and hold Fraunhofer harmless against all claims and expenses, including legal expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, arising out of use of the Software especially against claims of strict product liability.

§8 Final Provisions

(1) These Terms and Conditions are subject exclusively to the substantive law of the Federal Republic of Germany - with the exception of the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sales of Goods (CISG).

(2) Any changes and modifications to this Agreement require written form. This applies also to changing of this requirement of written form.

(3) Should any of the provisions in these Terms and Conditions be or become invalid, legally void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, or contain any regulatory gap, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.
